24 February 2004

To whom it may concern

Letter of Reference: Iouri Smirnov

Iouri Smirnov worked for iGeo for a period of one year up to February 2004. During this time his duties included:

- 1) Remote processing of microseismic data on a daily basis;
- 2) Preparation of daily seismological reports for an Australian mine;
- 3) Database management, and regular web-site updating;
- 4) Remote login and system-checking of an Australian seismological network;
- 5) Geophysical data processing and analysis, including report preparation (New Zealand);
- 6) Field data acquisition and on-site geophysical survey management (New Zealand);

Iouri has proven to be a reliable and meticulous worker, willing to work difficult and long hours. In particular, he pays careful attention to instrumentation maintenance and care. He enjoys good relationships with clients.

Sincerely
